

Samaria National Park

Duration: 2 days Level: Easy Overnight: Hotel Price: 240€

Samaria is a two days sea kayak trip that takes place within the Samaria national park in an absolutely stunning sea kayaking environment. No previous experience is required. You need to be in good fit and not more than 105kg (that is the limit on weight in the hull of our boats regarding stability).

Overview of the trip

240€/person Book

During the trip, we will paddle towards Loutro and Agia Roumeli villages (not accessible by roads). We will pass some of the most famous beaches of Crete; Glyka nera (sweet water beach), Marmara, Agios Pavlos and optional the Domata beach. All those areas are within the range of Samaria national park.

EXPERIENCE NEEDED

The whole trip is about 40-45km.

This equates to about 20km/day in 2 days.

For Samaria trip you need to be fit enough to paddle 20-25km per day.

Paddlers without previous experience are welcome to join but they will enjoy it much more if they do an introduction course at least a day before (extra cost 80€ per person).
